loads and one was a shipment to Honolulu.

Dr. Carey D. Langhorn, who is to relieve Surgeon Smith at the Naval Station, arrived on the Korea this morning. He should have been here on the Sheridan, but missed the boat.
Dr. Smith leaves for the Coast this afternoon on the China.

The Korea brings 82 tons general stuff, mostly provisions, 189 bags of mail, and a good number of passengers, both for this port and the Orient.
Two hundred and twenty are in the steerage, of which number a few are landing in this port, among them being more of the Hindus who are drifting in this way pretty steadily from the Coast now.

Among the prominent passengers aboard are the family of Raymond C.
Brown, the local immigration inspector, Jack T. Warren, a business man of this city; E. M. Jones, of Kobe, Japan, who has been on official business in Washington, and Professor R.
Koch, the noted bacteriologist of Germany, who is a stop-over passenger, staying at the Moana hotel.

All of the people on the ship say that "Frisco was fleet mad when she left."

Thirteen-year-old Leon is an orphan and he was adopted some time ago by K. and Ole Enos. They were also made the guardians of the property which he had fallen heir to, and their bond was placed at $100.

Sam Kapuhalani swears that their bond is absolutely worthless. Kano-hoku filed the bond with her husband, Joe Enos, as surety. Sam says that property to the value of $1200 they received that sum, was sold.
Furthermore he states that no final accounts have been filed regarding the boy's estate.

Extreme cruelty is also charged against K. and John Enos, such as beating with whips, etc., and a specific charge is made. They are accused of using a "blacksnake."

Finally, the boy could not stand the constant brutal treatment accorded him, and he ran away, coming to Sam Kapuhalani for assistance. He was placed in St. Louis College, where he now is, and has been staying with Sam ever since.

Judge Lindsay ordered K. and John Enos to appear in Court to show cause, if they can, why the boy's person and estate should not be taken from their care. He also ordered them to file their final accounts of the estate. In the meantime, Leon Sterling will remain under the care of Sam Kapuhalani.

WATERFRONT NOTES

TWO LINERS IN

Two big P. M. liners are in port this morning, the China from the Orient, and the Korea from San Francisco, both bringing passengers and mail for this port, and some general freight.

They arrived off the harbor early this morning, and came in at nearly the same time, making it necessary to dock the China at the Channel wharf, and the Korea at the regular Huckleford wharf. They will sail at 5 and 4 p. m. today respectively, carrying mail and passengers out of this port.

The boats both had uneventful runs over, with calm weather, and no excitement on board.

The China brings 300 tons general cargo and 42 bags of mail. She is coaling in this port as usual and taking on fresh supplies. On this boat 100 Japanese for this port came in the steerage.

Prominent among the passengers aboard are A. Morphy, well known here as the purser of the Persia, and E. J. Beard, a civil engineer, who has been building railroads in the Philippines for a number of years.

Seven of the passengers in the cabin stop over in this port.

Among the people in the cabin is a large party of German and Austrian tourists on their way around the world.

The Korea brings 82 tons general
stuff, mostly provisions, 189 bags of
mail, and a good number of passengers, both for this port and the Orient.
in this way pretty steadily from the Coast now.

Among the prominent passengers
aboard are the family of Raymond C.
Brown, the local immigration inspector, Jack T. Warren, a business man
of this city; E. M. Jones, of Kobe, Japan, who has been on official business in Washington, and Professor R.
Koch, the noted bacteriologist of Germany, who is a stop-over passenger,
staying at the Moana hotel.

INTER-ISLAND STEAMERS.

The Mauna Loa came in this morning with a good lot of pantry goods.
She brings 500 bags of sugar, 300 bags coffee, 5 bags taro, 2 bags potatoes, 4 bags ginger, 6 bags cabbages, 6 bunches bananas, 2 cases oranges, 7 cases dried fish, 2 cases eggs, 1 case limes, 28 cases honey, 11 kegs butter, 30 bundles hides, 42 bags, 30 head cattle, 4 calves, 8 crates chickens, 2 pigs, 4 horses, 2 cows, 1 dog, 1 goat, and 165 packages sundries.

The Ke Au Hui is in port today, having brought from Anahola this morning 3400 bags sugar, 329 bags rice, 24 bales hides, 5 empty boxes, 2 crates chickens, 1 boiler, 39 bags coal and 3 packages sundries.

The W. G. Hall came in this morning with the following cargo, 465 bags A sugar, 1335 bags B sugar.

The Mikahala, from Koloa, brings 4000 bags A sugar and 900 bags B sugar.

SAILING TODAY.

Inter-island steamers sailing today are: Mikahala, 5 p. m., for Mahawell; Ke Au Hui, 5 p. m., for Anahola; and the W. G. Hall, 5 p. m., for Hukuni.

THE AMERICAN BARK Kaidani is rushing work on her discharging, in order to get aboard a cargo of sugar which she is to take east.

THE STEAMER KINAU, Gregory, sailed for Kaula ports at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

WANT POLICE

of the way locality under the control and regulation of the police.

The above petition is being widely circulated today and has already received a large number of signatures, among the signers being Supervisors Harvey and Fern, as well as a large number of Hawaiians and prominent men from the waterfront.

"I signed the petition simply because I want to get protection for the women of my family and for my race," said one of the prominent Hawaiians this noon. "Since I will be coming soldiers and others have been hanging about my place and have at times been making overtures to the women of my family, and I have been told by many others that they had had the same experience."

Sheriff Iaukea had not received a copy of the petition when he was seen this noon. He would not state, before receiving it, what action he would take in regard to the matter.

Honolulu has well gained the reputation of being a clean city. The only way we can maintain same is by keeping at work.

RENTS CAUSE LOSS

Acting Governor Mott-Smith had a conference with William Pfothner this morning regarding rental of lands in Pihonua, Hawaii, which are leased to Governor Baker, and in turn leased by him to the Hawaiian Mill Company. The Hawaiian Mill Company has been paying a rental of $3.50 per acre to both the Government and the lessee, and Mr. Pfoth-ner states that this is too much.

The latter company has been running its cane lands at a loss of from $12,000 to $15,000 a crop, mainly on account of the fact that the company has to pay $7, in all, rent for each acre. A legal question enters into the discussion, inasmuch as it is not known whether the Executive has the right to reduce rents.

ROBERT LOVE ESTATE
INCORPORATES FOR $60,000

Articles of association, followed by ones of incorporation, have been filed with the Treasurer by the Robert Love Estate. The capital stock is named at $60,000, which is divided up into 600 shares, held by the following persons: Alice Love Hoogs, 99 shares; W. H. Hoogs, 1 share; W.
A. Love, 100 shares; J. H. Love, 100
